will be able to issue an earlier hour on Satur-

LOCAL ITEMS.
SATURDAY MORNING, JUNE 1, 1867.

Notice.
The Ladies will take notice that "The Mite Society" will hold its regular monthly meeting in the Court House next Tuesday, June 4th,
at 11 o'clock A. M.

Under Seal has been put up a very fancy striped envelope for Registered Letters, and has made some additional regulations for security against their loss. Any one desiring to register letters can do so by applying to Mr.
T. C. HUBBELL, our worthy Postmaster, who has received a full supply of the Envelopes; and the additional charge of twenty cents is well compensated by the special protection and attention given to a Registered Letter.

PROGRESS OF LIFE INSURANCE.—The amount of new business written by the Equitable Life Assurance Society, 92 Broadway,
New York, during 1866, exceeds by about $400,000 the aggregate new business of the contemporaneous Life Companies formed in 1859 and '60, whilst its total cash premium
for the year exceeds the TOTAL CASH PRE-MIUM INCOME of the five senior (New York State) companies at the time of the formation of the Equitable, (1859).
Its ratio of claims paid and expenses to total cash premiums is less than that of any of the Companies previously organized.

OBITUARY.

DIED.—In the Town of Orangeburg, on 29th day
of May, A. D. 1867, Dr. EDWARD W. DETRE-VILLE, aged twenty five years, eleven months and six days.
This estimable lady, who was endeared to a large circle of acquaintances and friends by her many virtues, showed, by the patient resignation with which she endured for many months, the afflictive dispensation of Divine Providence, and that the traits, which in health shone forth as the ornaments
of female character, equally adorn the sick chamber of the pious Christian.
Under all circumstances of pain and slow-consuming disease, she illustrated the beauty and consistency of true piety. In her last moments, speech, which had previously failed, returned; and to her pastor, and the dear ones around her, she was enabled to give satisfactory expression of her complete confidence in her acceptance with her Saviour.
When at the side of her couch was sung, "There is Rest for the Weary," "O, what a thrill that voice," she exclaimed, "to join the sweet angels." Bidding farewell to brother, sister, and to him who was dearest of all on earth, and who stood grief-stricken by, with a full trust in God, and a wish to meet her dear ones gone before, she fell sweetly asleep in Jesus.
"Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."

THE EQUITABLE
LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY,
NO. 92 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

Assets, - - - $3,077,788
Income, - - - 2,069,070
Dividend February 1, 1867, over $600,000.

All the most desirable and popular kinds of LIFE and ENDOWMENT POLICIES issued, and every advantage appertaining to the business granted to Policy-holders.

PURELY MUTUAL.

THE CHARTER OF THE SOCIETY REQUIRES THAT ALL PROFITS GO TO THE ASSURED.

DIVIDENDS DECLARED ANNUALLY ON THE FIRST OF FEBRUARY.

And applied as cash to the reduction of future premiums. Dividends upon the first year's premium, may be applied to reducing the second year's premium, and so on annually thereafter.
Just and liberal dealing with the assured, promptness in the payment of losses, and the greater advantages offered to the assured by this Society, have secured to it a success such as has not been equaled in the same space of time in this or any other country.
In the short space of seven years it has accumulated a fund of OVER THREE MILLIONS OF DOLLARS, and has secured an annual income of OVER TWO MILLIONS. During the year 1866 alone it assured, by new policies, OVER THIRTY MILLIONS OF DOLLARS, increased its income over ONE MILLION, and added to its fund more than FOURTEEN HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS.

It is thoroughly established on a solid basis, conducts its business on the Cash Plan, and its ratio of "Total Expenditure," to "Total Cash Income" is less than that of any other company previously organized.
ITS POLICIES AVERAGE LARGER THAN THOSE OF ANY OTHER COMPANY
IN AMERICA, showing that, for investments, persons select this Society in preference to any other.

The Assured have the option annually of applying their dividends in any of the FIVE following ways, under the rules of the Society:
FIRST—To the permanent increase of the sum assured.
SECOND—To the increase of the sum assured for one year, or a term of years.
THIRD—To the permanent reduction of the premiums.
FOURTH—To the reduction of the premiums for one or more years.
FIFTH—To the reduction of the number of years in which premiums are to be paid.
